----------	-------------------------------------	---

The Troggs are an English rock band (Andover) from the 1960s that had a number of hits in Britain and the USA, including their most famous song, "Wild Thing".

Black Bottom refers to a dance which became popular in the 1920s. "The Original Black Bottom Dance" was printed in 1919. It came from an earlier dance called "Jacksonville Rounders' Dance" printed in 1907. The word "Rounder" was a synonym for "pimp". The dance was featured in the Harlem show "Dinah" in 1924, and then "The Scandals of 1926", whereupon it became a national craze, overtaking the popularity of the Charleston and eventually becoming the number one social dance. Al Capone is said to have been a fan of the dance.
