Anthony Graham Brown was born in October 1954 in Arabi, Georgia. While attending the University of Georgia, he started his musical career as part of the beach-music duo Dirk and Tony. He moved to Nashville in 1982 where he found work singing advertising jingles for companies such as Mc Donald's, Disneyland and Budweiser (not to mention being the singing narrator in the Taco Bell "Run for the Border" television spots) before signing to Capitol Records in 1984. This third album "Come as you Were", 1988, included "Darlene" which became his first Number One in the Top Ten Charts.

This music encourages dancers to dance a very sharp rumba, as is preferred nowadays, with very fast turns and no blending between figures. Intense teasing recommended.
