Tired of the same old Christmas carols? Chicago musician, composer, arranger Paul Libman has used his creative genius that is usually reserved for commercials and musical theatre to provide the perfect answer to this dilemma. Libman has created a band known as The Klezmonauts to form a musical marriage of Christian Christmas music and klezmer music – Jewish music.

The result is a hilarious and fun sound that will have everyone in a joyous holiday spirit. Libman doesn't stop there; nearly every song has a sampling of old and very familiar sounds from the opening whistle of "The Good The Bad and The Ugly", to "Rhapsody in Blue", surf tunes, James Brown, and even the opening rift from "Ina Goda Na Vida". It's almost as fun trying to pick out the measures from other tunes as it is to listen to the songs themselves.
