La vita è bella is a 1997 Italian language film which tells the story of a Jewish Italian, Guido Orefice (played by Roberto Benigni, who also directed and co-wrote the film), who must learn how to use his fertile imagination to help his son survive their internment in a Nazi concentration camp. “This ingenious, uplifting story is a breakthrough piece of motion picture artistry, a profound fable about a time in history that would deny folks their fairy tales”.

The movie made the Cannes Film Festival in 1998, winning the Grand Prize of the Jury. It then went on to win Academy Awards for Best Music, Most Original Dramatic Score and Best Foreign Language Film; Benigni won Best Actor for his role.
