Sidney Bechet was a child prodigy in New Orleans (born 1893). He was such good clarinet player that, in his youth he was featured by some of the top bands in the city. Bechet's style of playing clarinet and soprano sax dominated many of the bands that he was in. He played lead parts that were usually reserved for trumpets and was a master of improvisation. He spent the latter part of his life in Paris where he died in 1959.
